

Railway Operations

Course Name

Animal care and safety on the track

Course Description

This course will enable you to understand how to approach and move animals in a way that minimises distress to the animal and allow them to be moved to a safe position in a timely fashion whilst also considering your safety.

It will give you a better understanding of animal care and some practical strategies for moving animals.

The eLearning course Animal Care and Safety on the Railway should be completed before attending this course.

This course is delivered by the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (RSPCA).
